Emory University School of Medicine (“Emory”) offers voluntary training opportunities for the benefit of its students in vehicles operated by Grady Memorial Hospital Emergency Medical Services (“Grady EMS”) and in aircraft operated by Air Methods Corporation’s wholly owned subsidiary Rocky Mountain Holdings, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company d/b/a Rocky Mountain Helicopters and LifeNet (“RMH”) (herinafter collectively “ride-along”). Each ride-along participant must be covered by an accident and health insurance policy.

I desire to voluntarily participate in ride-along(s). I represent that I am knowledgeable of the risks associated with ride-alongs, including but not limited to the following: (a) all manner of injury, including, but not limited to, paralysis, burns, broken bones and/or death; and (b) property damage. Notwithstanding the inherent risks, I wish to assume them by voluntarily participating in the ride-alongs.

I understand and agree that Emory is not responsible for my acts or the acts of Grady EMS or RMH while I am participating in the ride-alongs. I further understand that Emory does not warrant or guarantee in any respect the physical condition of any of the equipment used in connection with the ride-alongs or the competence or mental or physical condition of any driver, pilot, other personnel or other participant in a ride-along.

In consideration of Emory offering this opportunity and allowing me to participate in the ride-alongs, the receipt and sufficiency of said consideration hereby being acknowledged, I hereby agree to release, relieve, covenant not to sue, and forever discharge, indemnify and hold harmless, and on behalf of myself and my heirs, representatives, executors, administrators and assigns, do hereby release relieve, covenant not to sue, and forever discharge, indemnify and hold harmless, Emory, its officers, trustees, agents, employees, students, volunteers, and representatives, of any and from all claims, demands, rights, liabilities, losses, expenses and causes of action of whatever kind or nature, including, but not limited to, negligence, foreseen and unforeseen bodily and personal injuries, damage to property and the consequences thereof resulting from any participation in, transportation to or from or in any way connected with the ride-along.

By signing below, I acknowledge that I have read and understand the Assumption of Risk and Release of Liability.
